S.B. Criminal Misc. Bail Application No.7762/2006
Akshay Srivastava Vs. State of Rajasthan

Date Of Order :: 5th December, 2006

Hon'ble Mr. Justice Jitendra Ray Goyal

Mr. Shashi Bushan Gupta, counsel for petitioner.
Mr. R.P. Kuldeep, Public Prosecutor for State.

Heard learned counsel for accused petitioner, learned Public Prosecutor for the State and perused the material produced during the course of arguments.

Learned counsel for accused petitioner contended that a criminal case under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act is pending before the trial court and on 31/10/2006 the accused petitioner could not appear because he had to go out of Kota for some urgent work and an application for exemption from personal attendance mentioning the above reasons was moved before the trial court but the same was dismissed. It is also submitted that the accused petitioner never intended to keep himself absent from the court but because of unforeseen reasons he could not appear on that day.

Learned Public Prosecutor opposed the bail application.

Having considered the rival submissions made at the bar, the accused petitioner is directed to surrender before the trial court on 11/12/2006 before 11'o clock and if moves an application for grant of bail, the same may be disposed of expeditiously, as far as possible on the same day, in accordance to law, after considering the entire facts and circumstances of the case. Till then the warrant of arrest issued against the accused petitioner by the trial court shall not be executed.

The bail application stands disposed of accordingly.
